1. Fundraising

a. Prospect/Pledge

All organizations approached to share lists for upcoming prospect mailing have agreed. All are exchanges except for purchase of the Mother Jones list. The returns from the March prospect are just coming in. The December mailing goal was $21,000 and ~$22,000 has been received so far. The hope was to get about 600 new donors, but the number was closer to 500. This meant fewer donors were giving larger amounts. The current prospect is in the process of being re-vamped.

There has been a significant problem with the mailhouse - Watson Mailing Services - on two occasions. Both times they dropped the codes off the address lines, which meant it was not possible to determine which lists donations came from. Watson paid to have the codes identified after the fact the first time, but it created extra data entry. For the second mistake, Carol and Jacquie asked them to pay for staff time as well. Resist won't use them again. There was a suggestion to withhold payment of outstanding invoices until this matter is cleared up.

There are 750 pledges at this point. There was a suggestion that this might be the maximum number Resist has - given historical analysis. In order to increase number of pledges, would have to dramatically increase the number of donors overall.

b. ABC Mailing (House mailing)

There was a 12% return from the last mailing and more donations are still coming in. The next in-house mailing will be in June. Since Resist picked up more donors from the recent prospect, hopefully this will generate more ABC donors.

c. Credit cards

There are more components to check out before actually making it work. There are more components to check out before actually making it work.

A grantee/donor sent a letter saying that he was glad Resist didn't take credit cards and made several political arguments opposing them. Several people felt a need to send a letter out with first time notification of resist's decision to accept credit cards. The letter would discuss Resist's political debate about their use and the reason for the decision.

There was a concern raised again that people will not think periodically about Resist and politics if they are not required to stop and write a check. There was a suggestion to be creative about what incentives Resist's provides to pledges.

Two kinds of insurance policies will be needed to cover potential for misuse/fraud. Need to ensure a secure site for web donations. Could use a "Donate Now" button to take donors to a secure site.

Proposal: Begin use of credit cards on an experimental basis and review success rate one year after implementation. At the June meeting, there will be a draft letter to donors regarding credit card use for the Board to review. There will also be an implementation plan brought to the June meeting, including: statement of cost, who will be responsible for oversight, steps to implementation, plan for review. Vote: 10 Yes. 2 Abstain.

2. Committee on Restructuring

a. Advisory Board

There will be a re-draft of the letter to the current Advisory Board re: clarification of job description. The letter will be a bit more forceful and will allow for a mail merge to put in people's names. Some additional notes of appreciation will be added to the letter. Hank will re-draft the letter.

b. "Other recommendations"

The Executive Committee was charged with looking at the By-laws and creating an ad hoc long range planning committee. The Committee will report back in August.

3. Finance Committee

Financial Statements from 2/28/01 were reviewed. They are attached.

The Budget for FY 2001 was approved. 10 yes. 1 abstain.

4. Board Development Issues

a. New Board Members

The Committee has decided to take a one-by-one approach to new Board members, instead of group interviews. There has not been much follow through on the part of current prospects - even after being contacted. No recent letters of interest or resumes.

Abby Scher, former editor of Dollars & Sense, is interested. Andrew Wells from Asian Pacific Center for Justice and Peace indicated interest, but it is not clear he will remain in the US. Letta Neely and Michele Domingo have also indicated interest.

b. Retreat

There was a strong response to the e-mail survey that there should be a one-day retreat in the fall on the Saturday before the October Board meeting. There was mixed feeling about having a facilitator. The Advisory Board should be invited.

The retreat will be held Saturday October 13th. There were a range of suggestions for topics: clarify mission and goals; long-range planning and strategizing; political discussions; socializing

Proposal: Check out retreat places where those that want to could stay overnight. Have a facilitator. Vote: 10 yes. 2 abstain.

Kay will assist the Board Development Committee.

5. Personnel

Jacquie Bishop tendered her resignation and has accepted another job. Board and staff expressed their appreciation for her work and the initiatives she generated. The Board wished Jacquie well in her new work.

Jacquie suggested that a new staffing plan be put into place as soon as possible to ensure that Carol is not overburdened. Jacquie recognized the importance of Resist's work and her regret that the position did not work out.

a. Evaluations

The Board unanimously voted to give Amanda permanent status.

b. Options for change in conduct of evaluations/role of Personnel Committee

There are problems with how the evaluations were conducted for new and long term staff. The Board needs to re-think how they occur and who is responsible. Staff needs to have a greater responsibility for self/peer evaluations. People on the Personnel Committee are not in a position to fairly evaluate staff.

There was a suggestion that one staff person be in charge of evaluations and supervising staff. Other ideas included a permanent manager or rotating supervisory person.

There were comments that the Board needs to re-look at the roles of staff. Two people were hired without thinking about Board/staff relations or staff/staff relations.

People felt that a facilitator might help the organization think about how to go forward.

The Restructuring Committee will take a first cut at this.

Delegate to the staff the ability to hire a consultant to manage current staffing needs in conjunction with the Executive Committee.

- The immediate fundraising needs include a prospect mailing that is partially completed and a future mailing that is already in process
- there is a need for a big picture consultant to look at donor acquisition issues (higher rate)
- there is a need for day to day work like data entry

Someone will be needed for several months.

Proposal: Staff in conjunction with the Executive committee will work out a budgetary schedule to meet the immediate staffing needs of the organization through FY 2001. Vote: Passed unanimously.

Proposal: the issue of restructuring the role and function of the Personnel Committee will be given as a charge to the Committee on Restructuring. a staff member must be on this committee. Vote: Passed unanimously.

Board Development Meeting

March 19, 2001

Present: Ty, Carol, Eileen, Amanda

Agenda

1. Mario Davila

Eileen and other members of the Board Development Committee have tried to contact Mario numerous times. He has not responded to calls or emails. We discussed next steps. We agreed to send him a letter that states: "we have been trying to contact you, we'd like to hear from you, lack of response will indicate that we should move on..." The tone of the letter should be open and engaging, but should state that this is our last effort to contact him."

Carol will write the letter.

2. Retreat

In the past retreats have been the responsibilities of the board development committee. Their purpose has been to discuss the mission and vision of the organization.

Best time for the board retreat would be in the fall. Probably between late September and early November.

Would the retreat be one day or overnight?

What are our goals? Educational, socializing, strategizing?

Possible topics:

- Budget conversation
- What's going on in progressive philanthropy?
- Where are our resources most effective?
- Other political discussions...

Recommendation: The Board Development Committee recommends we have an outside facilitator.

The Advisory Board should be invited to participate.

Eileen will send an email to Board members about the retreat. Will ask Board members to respond by Tues., Mar. 27th.

3. Potential Board members

The Bd. Development committee would like to deal with prospective candidates on a one-by-one basis. Would like to have a new person(s) by retreat. Have not received much response from prospects. Carol will call a few possible prospects for the Board.

4. Advisory Board

It is still unclear if Advisory Board is the responsibility of the Board Development or Restructuring Committee. Need clarification around roles of Advisory Board members. Who is responsible for clarifying those roles?

Minutes
Grant Committee
3/16/01

Present: Robin Carton, June Lee, Kay Mathew and Marc Miller

1. Weed out grants for April Board meeting
2. Start Up Funding

Organizations may receive start up funding if there is reason to believe that the group possesses the credibility, capacity and strategic thinking necessary to carry out their goals. Resist will give weight to areas that are important to the left, but are not currently being addressed by other organizations. Resist will be willing to take a risk on these groups, provided that there is a reasonable belief that the organization's work is important. All start up applicants must complete the Resist Grant Application and be currently eligible to receive grant awards under Resist's Funding Guidelines.

This item passed, but the Board requested that the Committee discuss Hank's recommendation that preference for start up funding would be given to historically under served geographic areas. The Board requested that the Committee decide whether this preference would be in the guidelines or just maintained as an internal policy.

This would be an internal criteria, essentially following the general policy of giving leeway to groups in areas where geographic representation is under-served.

3. Other Issues

- a. More Opportunity for Grant Committee to weed Out Groups

Currently, the committee weeds out those groups that clearly do not fit Resist's mission or funding criteria. The Committee suggests that it be given more power to weed out groups from the funding cycle, including those with weak proposals, in order to make the Board decision-making process more effective.

- b. Review of Application

The Committee will begin the process of reviewing the application both for content and for format. Robin will collect several examples from other funding colleagues of their applications.

c. Role of the Board in grantmaking

Issues raised:

- Do Board members feel there is a need to change the basic principle that the Board decides on grants.
- Should there be a structure where more weeding occurs to limit the number of grants that come to the Board?
- Is the current structure working for people now?
- Should the Advisory Board have a voice in grantmaking?

Board discussion of grantmaking

- What currently excites Board members about funding possibilities
- Discuss in depth the types of projects that Resist will fund.
- Discuss whether there should be other funding strategies developed

While referred to the Grant Committee, these appear to be larger organizational issues. The Committee suggests that they need to be discussed as part of a larger analysis of the organization. The Restructuring Committee is proposing an ad hoc long range planning committee be developed, and this might fit within its parameters.

d. Agenda Order at Board Meetings

The Committee suggests that grants be the first item on the agenda. Board members generally express disappointment when unable to participate in grant-making decisions. This would enable grants to be a focal point of the meeting.

Re: Grant Committee Meeting
Date: March 9, 2001

The Grant Committee meeting date is still unclear - I need to follow up to get a consensus on date and time. I will e-mail conformation of both.

Agenda

1. Weed out grants for April Board meeting
2. Start Up Funding

Organizations may receive start up funding if there is reason to believe that the group possesses the credibility, capacity and strategic thinking necessary to carry out their goals. Resist will give weight to areas that are important to the left, but are not currently being addressed by other organizations. Resist will be willing to take a risk on these groups, provided that there is a reasonable belief that the organization's work is important. All start up applicants must complete the Resist Grant Application and be currently eligible to receive grant awards under Resist's Funding Guidelines.

This item passed, but the Board requested that the Committee discuss Hank's recommendation that preference for start up funding would be given to historically under served geographic areas. The Board requested that the Committee decide whether this preference would be in the guidelines or just maintained as an internal policy.

3. Other Issues

Review of Application

Role of the Board in grantmaking

Issues raised:

- Do Board members feel there is a need to change the basic principle that the Board decides on grants.
- Should there be a structure where more weeding occurs to limit the number of grants that come to the Board?
- Is the current structure working for people now?
- Should the Advisory Board have a voice in grantmaking?

Board discussion of grantmaking

- What currently excites Board members about funding possibilities
- Discuss in depth the types of projects that Resist will fund.
- Discuss whether there should be other funding strategies developed

Minutes
Grant Committee
3/16/01

Present: Robin Carton, June Lee, Kay Mathew and Marc Miller

1. Weed out grants for April Board meeting
2. Start Up Funding

Organizations may receive start up funding if there is reason to believe that the group possesses the credibility, capacity and strategic thinking necessary to carry out their goals. Resist will give weight to areas that are important to the left, but are not currently being addressed by other organizations. Resist will be willing to take a risk on these groups, provided that there is a reasonable belief that the organization's work is important. All start up applicants must complete the Resist Grant Application and be currently eligible to receive grant awards under Resist's Funding Guidelines.

This item passed, but the Board requested that the Committee discuss Hank's recommendation that preference for start up funding would be given to historically underserved geographic areas. The Board requested that the Committee decide whether this preference would be in the guidelines or just maintained as an internal policy.

This would be an internal criteria, essentially following the general policy of giving leeway to groups in areas where geographic representation is under-served.

3. Other Issues

- a. More Opportunity for Grant Committee to weed Out Groups

Currently, the committee weeds out those groups that clearly do not fit Resist's mission or funding criteria. The Committee suggests that it be given more power to weed out groups from the funding cycle, including those with weak proposals, in order to make the Board decision-making process more effective.

- b. Review of Application

The Committee will begin the process of reviewing the application both for content and for format. Robin will collect several examples from other funding colleagues of their applications.

c. Role of the Board in grantmaking

Issues raised:

- Do Board members feel there is a need to change the basic principle that the Board decides on grants.
- Should there be a structure where more weeding occurs to limit the number of grants that come to the Board?
- Is the current structure working for people now?
- Should the Advisory Board have a voice in grantmaking?

Board discussion of grantmaking

- What currently excites Board members about funding possibilities
- Discuss in depth the types of projects that Resist will fund.
- Discuss whether there should be other funding strategies developed

While referred to the Grant Committee, these appear to be larger organizational issues. The Committee suggests that they need to be discussed as part of a larger analysis of the organization. The Restructuring Committee is proposing an ad hoc long range planning committee be developed, and this might fit within its parameters.

d. Agenda Order at Board Meetings

The Committee suggests that grants be the first item on the agenda. Board members generally express disappointment when unable to participate in grant-making decisions. This would enable grants to be a focal point of the meeting.

Sent: Tuesday, April 10, 2001 12:14 PM
Subject: Executive Committee
 Dear Jorge, June and Kate,

At the last Board meeting, the Executive Committee was charged with several tasks. they include:

1. Looking at the By-laws with a report back in August
2. Creating an ad hoc long range planning committee with a report back in August.
3. Working out a budgetary schedule in conjunction with staff to meet the immediate staffing needs of the organization through FY 2001. Issues include:
  - The immediate fundraising needs for a prospect mailing that is partially completed and a future mailing that is already in process
  - A need for a big picture consultant to look at donor acquisition issues (higher rate)
  - Need for day to day work like data entry

The most pressing item on the agenda is the budgetary schedule. Carol, Amanda and I have begun the process of assessing our current need and soliciting information from other organizations about potential costs. We hope to have this information within the next two weeks. We have parceled out Jacquie's current responsibilities in a manageable fashion for the time being.

The Ad Hoc Long Range Planning Committee seems to have some overlap with the Committee on Restructuring - in the minutes the need for a facilitator and some of the Retreat issues (which are also long range planning) appear to have been shared between the Board Development Committee and the Committee on Restructuring. We might want to clarify this to help sort out who is taking the lead. FYI- I am the staff delegate to the Committee on Restructuring.

We had discussed having a conference call in order to get started on these issues. We might also want to meet either before the next Board meeting or on the prior Saturday.

Some possible conference call dates/times include: April 24, 26 or 27. Lunch time or just after work (I need advance notice for evening calls to arrange child care).

Please let me know your thoughts on our agenda and possible times you are available.

Robin

Executive Committee Minutes
4/26/01

Present: Robin Carton, Kate cloud, June Lee, Jorge Rogachevsky

1. Staffing Needs

This was the charge from the April Board meeting for the Executive Committee:

1. Looking at the By-laws with a report back in August
2. Creating an ad hoc long range planning committee with a report back in August.
3. Working out a budgetary schedule in conjunction with staff to meet the immediate staffing needs of the organization through FY 2001. Issues include:

- The immediate fundraising needs for a prospect mailing that is partially completed and a future mailing that is already in process
- A need for a big picture consultant to look at donor acquisition issues (higher rate)
- Need for day to day work like data entry

I. Staffing Needs

a. Amanda's Schedule

For the summer (approximately 16 weeks), Amanda is interested in working full time hours. The staff proposed that Amanda take on additional defined tasks for that period, including: data entry in Paradigm, data entry in Grant-o-Matic, guest editing a fall issue of the Newsletter and providing basic updates and hot links to the web site. The one staff concern was that Amanda not take on larger on-going projects which she would be unable to maintain when she returned to half time status in the fall.

The Committee looked at budget projections for the cost increase of Amanda's salary (approximately $5,154) as opposed to the cost savings arising from Jacquie's departure (approximately $11,919). Amanda's increase to full-time status for the summer would be covered by the cost savings from Jacquie's position.

The Executive Committee approved Amanda's full time status for approximately 16 weeks.

The Committee suggested there needed to be a balance between long range planning for staff and short term staffing needs.

b. Fundraising Consultants

There are five fundraising mailings that will need to go out by the end of the year - including one almost completed. Three are mailings to current donors and two are prospecting mailings. There may be a need to develop a new brochure for the prospecting mailings as part of the mailing package.

The staff are empowered to hire a consultant to complete the next two fundraising mailings, with the understanding that the ability to hire for the completion of all fundraising mailing tasks will be contingent upon full Board approval at the June meeting.

II. By Laws

There was general agreement that the current By-Laws do not create any particular legal problems for the organization. There was general agreement that it would be productive to re-write the By-laws so that they were more understandable and user-friendly.

It was unclear if a By-Law review process would merely re-structure and re-organize the current document (with some additions); or if the process would be part of a long range analysis of organizational structure.

The Committee agreed that it was not necessary to undertake the review process immediately and tabled the issue for the time being. Members agreed to review the By-Laws for a future meeting.

III. Long Range Planning

The Committee decided to meet in order to provide some shape to the task of the newly forming ad hoc Long Range Planning Committee. To this end, the Committee decided to meet on June 1st from 4:30 - 6:30.

The tasks for that meeting will include discussions of:

- decisions made by the restructuring Committee
- personnel issues (e.g. job tasks, supervision, staffing plans)
- fundraising goals for the future
- grantmaking goals for the future
- how fundraising and grantmaking goals will impact job duties in the future
- creating a charge for the Long Range Planning Committee
